Who We Are

The Ninilchik Village Tribe is made up of approximately 800 members who trace their roots to the Ninilchik tribal lands as well as other Bureau of Indian Affairs-recognized Alaska Natives and American Indians who have settled in the tribal boundaries and have applied, and been accepted, for membership. The governing body of the Ninilchik Village Tribe, the Ninilchik Traditional Council, is presided over by a board of directors of 5 council members elected by the voting tribal membership to 3 year terms. The council directs executive staff using the Ninilchik Village Tribe's Organic Documents, which are set by the voting tribal membership to exercise tribal operations and tribal sovereignty, as guidelines.

Executive Director's Address

Ivan Z. Encelewski
NTC Executive Director

I hope that everyone is having a wonderful winter and all is well. I am anxiously awaiting the vision and wisdom of the famous groundhog "Punxsutawney Phil" who will give us his prediction on whether we can expect an early spring or not. With that being said and with hopes of an early thaw, I will once again be advocating for positive action in relation to our educational fishery permit. Due to the stated declines in the king salmon escapement, especially in the Ninilchik River, we can expect a fight just to keep what we had this past season. Last year we were able to add a south net below the harbor, yet the allocation was capped in the mid-season to releasing Kings, which is unacceptable for our people. Advocacy will continue and while we are cautiously optimistic, the educational fishery for 2014 does not appear to be poised to gain any allotments or advances at this time.

On a positive note, please be advised that we have a new doctor on staff at the clinic. Dr. Sarah Spencer, DO started in late November 2013 and she has been a tremendous asset to our healthcare delivery. She is available Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at the clinic. Please pass the word as we continue to upgrade our health services and programs.

For those who may not have heard, Tiffany Stonecipher is leaving at the end of the month to head south in order to start a new chapter in her life. Tiffany has been a tremendous asset to the tribe and advanced the Elders Outreach Program to unbelievable heights. I want to personally recognize, honor, and thank her for the profound services she has given to the tribe and the community. Along these lines, we are continuing to recruit for a new Elders Outreach Coordinator. If you know of any tribal member that may be interested, please have them fill out an application or contact us as this is a vital position to advocate, provide a luncheon, and represent on behalf of our elders.

On the council news front, the board held their regular meeting on January 9th, 2014. They heard reports from the program directors and discussed ongoing activities. The council adopted resolutions which included: applying for diabetes and environmental grant funding, along with an Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) grant, approved new members, and authorized entering into an agreement with the state for a breast and cervical cancer screening program. The housing program's annual self-monitoring report was reviewed, discussions were held on making NTC offices smoke-free, and updates were given on the Affordable Healthcare Act (ACA).

In closing, I want to thank all the NTC staff and board for their excellent work. It has been a team effort to see so many things come to fruition. Please feel free to stop in for some coffee, and I encourage you to attend the regular council meetings or get involved with ongoing events/activities here at the Tribe. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ivan Z. Encelewski
NTC Executive Director

Affordable Care Act Notice

Affordable Care Act: Important Notice for Tribal Members and Alaska Natives

Starting on January 1, 2014, every American must prove that they have health care coverage under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), also known informally as 'ObamaCare'. Please keep in mind that there are special exemptions, some of which apply directly to Alaska Native and American Indians.

Alaska Native and American Indians who are members of federally recognized tribes, or who are shareholders of an Alaska Native Village or Regional Corporation, are exempt under the ACA from the requirement to purchase insurance.

Members of federally recognized Indian Tribes in the above category have two (2) choices.

1.) They can apply for an exemption through the Marketplace, thereby completing an application for an exemption that must be filled out and mailed in with supporting documentation, or 2.) they can simply handle it on their federal tax return. You can ask the IRS for this exemption when you file your federal tax return in 2015 (for the 2014 tax year). You do not necessarily need to fill out the exemption form.

Furthermore, Alaska Native and American Indians and Other Individuals who are Eligible to Receive Services from an Indian Health Care Provider, who are not members of a federally recognized tribe or an Alaska Native Village or Regional Corporation, must apply for the exemption through the Marketplace and complete the paper application. You are eligible for the exemption through the Marketplace if you can prove any of the following:

- Enrollment in a federally recognized Tribe;
- Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) shareholder status (village or regional), or;
- Eligibility to receive services from an Indian Health Service (IHS) facility/Tribal health care provider

"In order to qualify for this exemption through the Marketplace, Alaska Native and American Indian people will have to apply for the exemption through a paper application process. This paper application can be printed at:

<http://marketplace.cms.gov/getofficialresources/publications-and-articles/tribal-exemption.pdf>

When you complete the application, you must send copies of supporting documents, such as:

Preferred documents:

- Tribal enrollment card/letter
- Proof of ANCSA Shareholder Status (Regional or Village)

These documents ensure you qualify for ACA special benefits for Alaska Natives and American Indians

Other accepted documents:

- Certificate of Indian Blood (CIB) card issued by the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA)
- IHS Eligibility Letter

Please do not send originals of these documents as they will not be returned to you.

Please remember to complete Step 2 of the application for all members of your family, including children. Also, be sure to send copies of the same supporting documents for every member of your family that needs the Indian Status Exemption to avoid a tax penalty.

Within 2-4 weeks of mailing the form, the Federal government will inform you if they need additional information. If you receive this exemption, you will be sent an Exemption Certificate Number that you will put on your federal income tax return. It is important to keep a copy of this Exemption Certificate Number in a safe place for future use. If you do not hear from the Federal Government within 4-6 weeks, contact the Health Insurance Marketplace Help Center at 1-800-318-2596.

Frequently asked questions about the ACA:

Q: What if I already have health care coverage?

A: If you have health care coverage through Medicaid, Medicare, Denali KidCare, Veteran's Benefits or your employer provides health insurance, you have met the requirements of the Individual Mandate and do not need to purchase additional health care coverage to avoid the tax penalty. You do not need to complete the Indian Status Exemption paperwork if you have health care coverage. However, the Indian Exemption is a lifetime exemption.

Q: If I don't buy insurance, will I still be able to get health care services at my IHS/Tribal health facility?

A: Yes, you will still be able to get care at your IHS/Tribal health facility. The health care services provided at IHS/Tribal health facilities are not changing. However, you will need to apply for an exemption."

Remember, if you are a member of the Ninilchik Village Tribe, you can receive your exemption simply by requesting it when you file your federal income tax return. Due to the fact that the exemption was expanded administratively to include other Alaska Native and American Indians who were not enrolled to tribes or Alaska Native Corporations, the individuals in the latter category must fill out the paper exemption. This is why there are two different methods available to tribal members, making it easier to claim the exemption for tribal members as it was written into the original law, and not added or promulgated by administrative action which could be changed in the future.

The NTC Offices, Tribal Services Department, and the Ninilchik Community Clinic have applications available and can help you through the exemption process if you choose to apply through the Marketplace. Please contact us if you have any questions. Thank you.

Elders Outreach

~Farewell~

I would like to formally let you all know I will be moving out of state in February 2014 and will no longer be serving you as the Elders Outreach Coordinator. Although I will no longer be an employee of Ninilchik Traditional Council, I will continually be willing to learn, striving to serve those I can and to constantly be coming home.

I am grateful to each of you for your time, guidance and patience. I also am grateful to the Tribal Council, our President and our Directors. I am indebted with thanks to Ivan, our Executive Director and especially to my boss, Janet who has continually supported my efforts in this program. Also I wouldn't have been able to fulfill this role without my mom, thank you and my grandmother, who had unknowingly summoned me home for a role I was yet to fill.

I wish you all the best as I continue to walk on my journey, but would like to leave you with a final thought. Each program at Ninilchik Traditional Council is what the staff and what you make it, this is ultimately what you participate in. I urge you all to seek out a Tribal Member that you feel would benefit this role as the Elders Outreach Coordinator and suggest they fill out an application. I ask you to seek someone you feel would continue to grow the program and someone who would serve you not only with bounty, luncheons and time, but with heart. I wish nothing but success for the future.

Thank you all again and don't hesitate to call! I'll miss you all.

Halibut with Pepitas

Here's a recipe from Vinter Vigglov reigning champion, Susan Chihuly:

2 T pepitas (pumpkin seeds), 4 6-oz. Halibut fillets, 2 t kosher salt, 1/2 t freshly ground black pepper, 2 T extra virgin olive oil, 2 T fresh lemon juice, 1 c vegetable stock, 1 1/2 T capers, drained & rinsed, 1/2 c halved cherry tomatoes (quartered if they're big), 1/4 c torn fresh basil, plus a handful of small leaves for garnish. Lightly toast the pepitas in fry pan – don't allow to brown. As soon as you begin to smell them, remove the pan from the heat, transfer the pepitas and set aside. Sear the halibut (seasoned w/salt & pepper) in olive oil on both sides. Add lemon juice & capers to halibut. Add stock & tomatoes & simmer until the tomatoes release some juices. Place the pan in a 400 deg. oven until fish is cooked through. Baste the fish with the juices. Add the torn basil & pepitas. Serve the fish over brown rice with the juices spooned over all. Enjoy!
